LENT 2012

In the Gospel of John, seven times Jesus used the words "I Am" and went on to tell us something about Himself and something He is for us.

Once, Jesus used only those two words to speak about Himself, "I Am."

In our American culture, there is a diverse opinion about Jesus, His person, His work, His relevance for our lives today. A person could get very confused if he turned only to the thoughts and opinions of others to learn about Jesus.

In the Gospel of John, we have the best source to tell us about Jesus! – Jesus Himself! Clearly, concisely, Jesus uses the words "I Am" to tell us not only Who He Is, BUT, Who He Is for Us!

During the seven weeks of the Lenten Season, we will let Jesus tell us Who He Is for Us, for the World, for All Who Believe! On Easter Sunday, we will come to the climax of Jesus' "I Am" statements with His words, "I Am the Resurrection and the Life"!

As for myself, I am appealing to parents with children, younger and older children, to come and be a part of the midweek Lenten Worship Services.

Special materials will be provided for the children as part of the worship service.
