St. Paul’s Lutheran Church, Cascade, To Mark Its Centennial Next Week

CASCADE — A century as a congregation will be observed by the Rev. Paul Lutheran Church this Sunday, April 9th, as a church and the community. The celebration will mark the beginning of a new era in the church’s history.

On Wednesday, the Rev. Charles Buehler, who was confirmed in St. Paul’s, will be the guest speaker at the event. He has been a member of St. Paul’s Church since 1975.

The event will include a church service at 10 a.m., followed by a luncheon at noon. The evening service will be at 7 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On Sunday, the Rev. Carl Ludwig, the current pastor of St. Paul’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon. The service will begin at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On the same day, the Rev. Philip W. Philipp, of St. Andrew’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon.

The service will take place at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

The church has been in existence for 100 years and has been a part of the community since its inception.

The event will feature a centennial celebration, including a church service, a luncheon, and a dinner at night.

The church has been a part of the community for 100 years, and the celebration will mark the beginning of a new era in the church’s history.

The Rev. Charles Buehler, who was confirmed in St. Paul’s, will be the guest speaker at the event. He has been a member of St. Paul’s Church since 1975.

The event will include a church service at 10 a.m., followed by a luncheon at noon. The evening service will be at 7 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On Sunday, the Rev. Carl Ludwig, the current pastor of St. Paul’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon. The service will begin at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On the same day, the Rev. Philip W. Philipp, of St. Andrew’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon.

The service will take place at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

The church has been in existence for 100 years and has been a part of the community since its inception.

The event will feature a centennial celebration, including a church service, a luncheon, and a dinner at night.

The church has been a part of the community for 100 years, and the celebration will mark the beginning of a new era in the church’s history.

The Rev. Charles Buehler, who was confirmed in St. Paul’s, will be the guest speaker at the event. He has been a member of St. Paul’s Church since 1975.

The event will include a church service at 10 a.m., followed by a luncheon at noon. The evening service will be at 7 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On Sunday, the Rev. Carl Ludwig, the current pastor of St. Paul’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon. The service will begin at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On the same day, the Rev. Philip W. Philipp, of St. Andrew’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon.

The service will take place at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

The church has been in existence for 100 years and has been a part of the community since its inception.

The event will feature a centennial celebration, including a church service, a luncheon, and a dinner at night.

The church has been a part of the community for 100 years, and the celebration will mark the beginning of a new era in the church’s history.

The Rev. Charles Buehler, who was confirmed in St. Paul’s, will be the guest speaker at the event. He has been a member of St. Paul’s Church since 1975.

The event will include a church service at 10 a.m., followed by a luncheon at noon. The evening service will be at 7 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On Sunday, the Rev. Carl Ludwig, the current pastor of St. Paul’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon. The service will begin at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

On the same day, the Rev. Philip W. Philipp, of St. Andrew’s Lutheran Church, will give the sermon.

The service will take place at 10 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 11 a.m. The evening service will be at 6 p.m., with a reception afterward.

The church has been in existence for 100 years and has been a part of the community since its inception.

The event will feature a centennial celebration, including a church service, a luncheon, and a dinner at night.

The church has been a part of the community for 100 years, and the celebration will mark the beginning of a new era in the church’s history.

The Rev. Charles Buehler, who was confirmed in St. Paul’s, will be the guest speaker at the event. He has been a member of St. Paul’s Church since 1975.